Words ending in LY have magic.

Only, family, strongly, definitely, extremely, positively, exactly, quickly, daily, metaphorically, seriously, rarely, directly, simply, personally, possibly, quickly, aggressively, financially, really, carefully, totally, absolutely, truly, immediately, usually, fantastically, specifically, early, randomly, mentally, completely, especially, pleasantly, rapidly, currently, finally, particularly, anomaly, humanly, definitely, dramatically, sincerely, incredibly, likely, firmly, wrongly, flatly, originally, fully, greatly, neatly, regularly, individually, easily, promptly, naturally, presently, desperately, probably, certainly, correctly, potentially, ultimately, yearly, properly, globally, supply, simultaneously, entirely, actually, practically, shockingly, physically, eventually, widely, essentially, fiercely, previously, literally, successfully, additionally, exactly, entirely, instantly, radically, multiply, legally, apply, artificially, carefully, quarterly.

These words are used in sales letters that makes millions of dollars a year for the promoters.

You should use as many of these words in your sales letters, speeches you'll write, ads, etc.

Words ending in LY are trigger words that make people want to buy. So use as many as you can in what you write, just so they properly fit what you are saying.

Here's what I do, I write my letter first about any subject, then I rewrite it using as many LY words as I can.

You will find many more LY words than I've listed but, these LY words will give you a good start.

You're now on your way to start making as much money as you want, for the rest of your life.

Not many people know the LY secret, only top copywriters do.

People see the LY words all the time but, think nothing of it other than it interests them. They don't think about the power it has over them in making a buying decision.

I suggest you join this opportunity for the mail order training, they have a boot camp recording that is broke up into several parts, over 21 hours totally. It's the best training you can get I think and I've been in mail order since 1970.

You will also find good internet marketing training. It's only $25 monthly. Go here now to learn more:
